

Student Acceptable Use of I.C.T. Policy Agreement

We confirm that we have read and fully understand the enclosed Kormilda College Student Acceptable Use Policy (AUP). We agree that the policy has been accepted.

When using the College computers (or other College devices), network and Internet, the student named below agrees to abide by the Kormilda College Student Acceptable Usage Policy and understands that any breach of this policy will incur the sanctions as outlined in the policy. Furthermore, I understand that:

Use of any personal computer or device that has been connected to the College network will be used in agreement with the policy.

Breach of the Policy

We understand that:

- » Use of student's accounts may be suspended or revoked if the policy is breached.
- » Any personal devices that have been configured to connect to the College network will have the connectivity revoked if the policy is breached.
- » Any breach of the policy will be raised with parents/guardians to discuss the breach and the student's accounts and access will remain suspended until an outcome has been agreed.
